He was walking down a long road. The night seemed almost perfect, then he had a sword against his neck and a boy with long blue hair, green eyes, and a Shinsengumi uniform on, looking determined to kill. Kazama laughs. "You turn your sword to me without knowing the reason im here." The boy narrows his eyes and holds the hilt tightly.

>"This is a restricted area. I must ask you to leave or else I will have to use deadly force." His voice almost seemed feminine. Kazama smiles.
"Let me enlighten you."

He takes his sword and puts the tip against his. "A male demon against a female human."
>"How did you know?""It's not to difficult." The young women takes the first swing and almost cuts Kazama's face. She continues at a speed difficult for Kazuma to keep up. And he was a demon. His sword flies through the air and lands in her hand.

"Why spare me?"

"I will see you again." He walks the way he came.

She stares at him. "Yo Asuke!" She turns and Heisuke is walking towards her.

>"Is it taken care of?""Yeah. You really did a number on that fury. It was hard to clean that up."
>"Sorry. You know I go crazy when I know im in danger." She says shyly. "Those things are freaky. Why is Kondou supporting this?""I don't know. I honestly don't. We should get back. Anyone on the road?"
>"Just one but he started a fight. Called himself a demon."
